

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million (1990–1999) and is projected to increase by a further 1.5 million by 2010 (Office for National Statistics 2000). The number of people aged 65 and over is projected to increase by 2.5 million by 2020 (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop strategies to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for ageing, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the health and quality of life of older people. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose.

The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose.

The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose.

The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose.

The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose.

The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose.

The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; (2) to ensure that older people are able to live independently; (3) to ensure that older people are able to participate in the activities of their communities; and (4) to ensure that older people are able to live in the places they choose.

W204

☐ 130x180mm

Biemans guides for uv print:

- Full-colour possible
- Export .PDF file for production
- Use high res. image or vector files if available.
- Convert text to outlines so that fonts are not changed
- Keep between the gray line

Biemans guides for laser engraving:

- Black and White image only, black area will be lasered.
- Create text in outlines or add font to your order
- Export .PDF file for production
- Use high res. image or vector files if available.
- Keep margin on all sides, all glass has a 5mm tolerance.
-  - Area not engravable

Save design with artboard only, remove template information!